Two Years Without You
Time does not heal all wounds as they say,
Nor lessen the pain as days slip away.
I've heard it spoken time and again,
But time has not eased this endless pain.

*The hurt grows deeper, my heart grows more heavy,
The weight of your absence is constant and steady.
This grief has no ending, no words can explain
How much I still miss you, how I long for you again.*

*I still cannot understand why you had to go,
There are so many things I will never know.
I cannot imagine a lifetime apart,
Or understand how to mend my broken heart.*

*No more hearing your laughter, so precious and true,
No more seeing that smile that belonged only to you.
No more hugs, no more late-night talks,
No more sharing our thoughts on those long wonderful walks.*

*Two years have passed, yet it feels like yesterday,
And I would give anything to have you here today.
The world keeps on turning, the days come and go,
But the ache of losing you continues to grow.*

*Still, each day, I find the strength to stand,
To take one more step, though I don't understand.
I carry you with me in all that I do,
And try to live in a way that would honour you.*

*I know you would want me to carry on,
To find little moments of light when the hope feels gone.
So I hold on to faith when the pain is too much,
And imagine your comfort, your love, and your touch.*

*I trust that you're safe in God's loving care,
Held close in His arms, free from all despair.
And though I must live with this ache and this pain,
I hold on to the promise we'll be together again.*

*Until that day comes, when my journey is through,
A part of my heart will always belong to you.
No measure of time could lessen my love,
Nor change the bond that death cannot undo.*

*You are, and forever will be, my wonderful son,
My heart's greatest blessing, my cherished one.
Two years without you, yet my love carries on,
For a mother's love never dies when a son is gone.*

*I love you, my darling, more than words can convey.
I miss you more deeply with each passing day.
Until we meet again, in God's heavenly light,
You'll live in my heart, my love, day and night.*

Forever my son. Forever loved. Forever missed.

IN MEMORY OF

Steven J. Marryatt
April 15, 1986
- Oct 29, 2005

Steven the day went away.
Today is such a painful and grief fill for us; we mourn the moment that you left and recall how life used to be.
Steven, you were someone very special, who left your mark on so many lives. Things just never been the same without you.
Even though we are apart we find comfort in the memories, deep within our hearts.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Nannie.

Obituary
Katherine Florence Shaw

It is with much love and deep sorrow that we announce the passing of our dear Mom, grandmother & sister Katherine Florence Shaw, 77 of West Bay Centre, which occurred on Tuesday, October 20, 2026, at St. Anne's Community & Nursing Care Center, Arichat, surrounded by her loving family.

Mom was raised in Dundee and was the daughter of the late Alexander and Cassie (Matthews) MacRae.

Mom loved spending time with her family and friends and family gatherings. She loved music and her and Dad could be found at many concerts throughout the year. She loved going to dances, playing darts and cards especially playing Skip-Bo, TV bingo or board games. She also loved spending time with her grandchildren, coloring with them or playing cards or board games or going to watch them play at their many sporting events, even sitting in a cold rink.

Mom was a lot of fun and was up for any road trip, whether it was going on shopping trips or simply packing lunch and going on day trips. She was an avid reader and loved doing crossword and sudoku puzzles.

While Mom was a stay-at-home Mom, she was also a bookkeeper and once her children were grown, she worked for several years at the vineyard in Marble Mountain.

Florence is survived by daughters, Connie (Robert) Calder, St. George's Channel; Jean (Gilles) Joyce, Dundee & Sandra (Bradley) Malcolm, Kempt Road; son Daniel (Ashley), Antigonish and grandchildren, Matthew and Braeden Calder, Kathryn Joyce, Andrew and Jacob Malcolm, Tori, Chase and Jackie Shaw; Brother Duncan (Debbie) MacRae, Dundee; Sisters-in-Law, Colleen MacRae, Dundee, Christine MacKay, West Bay & Gladys Shaw, West Bay Centre and many nieces and nephews.

Besides her parents, Florence was predeceased by her husband of 50 years Alex and by her sister Mabel (Arthur) Fougere, brother Henry MacRae, sister-in-law Miriam MacRae, brothers-in-law Jackie Shaw and Allan MacKay.

The family would like to express their sincere appreciation to the staff of the St. Anne's Community & Care Center for the compassion & kindness shown to Mom during her time there.

Visitation will take place 4-8 pm on Sunday, October 25h at Dennis Haverstock Funeral Home, Port Hawkesbury. Funeral service will be held Monday, October 26 at 11 am at the West Bay United Church with private family burial to follow. Rev. Jack Canning presiding. Memorial donations may be made to the Diabetic Association, Alzheimer's Society of Nova Scotia or the charity of one's choice.

You will be deeply missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.

"Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day, unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed, and forever dear."

Obituary
Richard Darren Scott

Steep Creek, Nova Scotia — With heavy hearts, the family of Richard Darren Scott announces his passing on Sunday, October 18, 2026, in Guysborough Memorial Hospital, following a brief illness. Born on May 9, 1969, Richard was the cherished son of Marvin and Lina Scott. He was predeceased by his father, Marvin.

He is survived by his loving mother, Lina Scott, and by his brother, Marvin Scott Jr., and sister-in-law, Shauna. He will be lovingly remembered by his nephew and niece, Cameron Scott and Olivia Scott, along with Cameron's companion, Charlie MacLean, and Olivia's companion, Logan DeYoung. He also leaves behind his cherished great-niece, Charlotte Scott, who brought him joy and light.

Richard was a steady, kind-hearted presence in the lives of all who knew him. He carried a quiet strength and a gentle humour that stayed with everyone he met. Melford and Steep Creek were always home — a place where he shared countless stories and created memories that will be held dearly.

A private family graveside service will be held at a later date to honour Richard's life and the impact he had on all who were fortunate enough to know him.

May he rest peacefully.
Words of comfort may be forwarded to the family at www.haverstocks.com
